players and coaches!

OLYMPIC OVAL SUMMER CAMPS

Canada

Registration Deadline is August 1, 2006.

Space is limited. Please apply early! First come, first served basis.

FEMALE HOCKEY CAMP

Novice/Atom: (10 years and under) This group will learn fundamental skills. Emphasis is placed on skating, shooting and puck control. Players will learn the basics in a positive environment created by knowledgeable and enthusiastic instructors.

Pee Wee: (11-13 years) A challenging and fun chance for players to review and refine the skills of skating, shooting and puck control. Progressive development into tactical aspects of the game, while at the same time focusing on positioning and execution of skills. Goalies and players receive specific instruction related to their position.

Bantam: (14-16 years) Athletes will be given the opportunity to refine their individual skills while being introduced to advanced technical and tactical components of the game. Players will also receive classroom instruction and off-ice training.

Midget: (16-18 years) Athletes in this group will receive an advanced technical, tactical and teamplay component. This exciting camp includes classroom instruction and dryland training.

COACHING: Coaches and staff have been selected for their positive leadership skills, teaching abilities and their proven success as role models in the game of hockey and fitness testing.
